This is little more about me.I think that I am a kind and charming lady, although it's hard to write a self description. I feel like a family-oriented woman, dreaming to devote herself to her beloved husband and quality family. My best dream and my strongest wish is to create the most happy family, building up on mutual understanding , trust , care and OF COURSE LOVE!!! The most important and valuable in a person is his inner beauty and the qualities like kindness, tenderness and care. Children need to see a healthy relationship by their parents. This way they grow up to be healthy and can have successful relationships when they get older. (FORMAT 3,SEND THIS ONE WHEN HIS THINKING ABOUT YOU)

Hello dear,

How are you doing right now overthere, how has been your day so far?How have u been doing and How is life treating you now,i guess you are doing pretty nice over there today,well its so nice to share a lot of feelings with you,i have imagined you as a nice person and as a caring person too,and i am so much liking what i get to read from you,cause you really know what you want in a relationship,i know life hasn't been easy in the past for any one cause we just want to struggle from the bottom to the top cause no one wants to remain below his/her demands,i get to see some things in your words which made me write you and your personality speaks a lot about you, because you really know how to describe yourself and the things you want in life, nice try, you really know who you really are and that's what i mean by self personality,its just all about you knowing who you really are and the things you do to make you a happy man, your words are short but meaningful cause at least you could write something about yourself,and i know you could say more in person or write more with the aid of you wanting to express yourself, what really do you think of yourself and who do you see yourself as,and what are your dreams and what kind of things do you do to yourself that makes you think you could a special person, or do you have to share your personality with someone before you can really can know how special you are to people, i assume you are the gift of God and God has blessed you with a lot in life all you just need is to focus on things around you and the people around you to know what God has in stock for you, how do you go about making a life meaningful for you and how do you try to make others smile by u considering how special you are.

Before a person could think of caring for someone you have to know how special you are to people and how caring you could be, its doesn't matter by you really knowing that person ,God might send you to that person for an help and you will be willing to help but it just take time cause the world is never a safe place anymore and there is a lot to learn about people,i my self i have learn a lot from my environment,the things i do and the things i try not to do,i just sit and listen to music read books and make my life meaningful to me and try to be honest about the whole thing i do,cause honesty is only the key to human success and it makes life meaningful if you can apply all the principles of been a special person to people,every day people die and everyday a new one is been born, so we all want to be in a safe place but we don't really know how to go about been there, cause we haven't really learned about the principles of life,and life is full of joy if you can discover the joy inside of you,life doesn't begin from your environment, it begins from inside of you,cause life begins if you can began it with a very first step and a very first chance....

If life goes on with one thing there will be another thing that might destroy it, so we just try not to fall a victim of circumstances,i have been through a lot of things in life but that didn't make me to do any silly things in life,it only makes me stronger in a lot of things cause i learn not to put my problems in my head cause if you do it will just weigh you down and it won't allow you think of better things to make your life meaningful,so i just want to make my life meaningful and use it in helping others and its all about me taking a chance to do what i have to do to make the world a loving place and to make people know that there is so much love inside of them to use in helping change the world, life goes on if you began with something real and sincere and you learn to focus about it, and learn to see the principles that quids it,life is been guide with a lot of principles leading to the truth of life and love,the earth alone is filled with so much love but we humans made it hidden cause of the bad things that we thought is good, If we only can learn to bring out the love of life and the life of love and get to make the world a place to live then every one don't have to get scared of each other,cause i have been into a lot of things i have tried a lot of things and it didn't really work out for me cause i can't really cheat on my feelings or judge myself for the things i do,I just want to make a lot of things come to reality by me focusing on them and wanting it to come to reality..i just want to make people happy with my kind of personality and the wisdom God has given me and i want to make others smile while i make myself smile to as well,there are more things we Still need to learn about Ourselves..

If only you can have a time to relax and focus on your thought and have a deep imagination about the whole thing happening in the world,if only you can do that, you will get to see the Good and Bad things on earth and that will surely keep you out of trouble, cause you decided to focus on building yourself in way that could help you and help others,the reason why we are in the world is to be here for one and other and to help when we are in need, but this generation that i have seen has turned to something else,there is alot of hatered, crime, greed, jealousy,self centered and fornication,all this didn't create or started in one day it all started from individials cause they just wanted to make life meaningless for them self and satisfy there immidiate needs, life began inside of us and we need to learn about the way of life to make it meaningful for us.

My words might sound too prophetic but my life is all about the thought and i mean all i say and do and i really want to start a family i can grow older with and with a man i will love with all my heart,i do sincerely know what love means to me and others and i go about building it in the right way if only my partner is ready to start a strong and fulfilled relationship..I really feel the music of your words and my heart sings the same rhythm and i know we will both be happy someday and i do have a lot of faith in your words cause they are words of truth and you are completely honest about it.

I'm not here to judge your past but i am here to build the present and show you the personalities love has and the really person inside of you..If you find it so hard discovering the real person in you i am here filled with so much music for you which you could dance to...i know someday i will be great and will be so special to a lot of people but i wanna take life the way i see and meet it..but i can only change situations.no situation is permanent.we both can change it..forget about the past and think of the beauty of the present and build on it and you will surely see the music in you.....

I will tell you more about life and marriage if you want to listen to it and you will be so happy to read my emails cause my words come deep down from my heart and i speak them and put them to words cause i am confident of my self and i am not afriad of who i am with time you will learn alot about who you really are cause i am just like an angel on to you and i know your life will be so wonderfull been with me..marriage is a life time commitment to me and we will build on that someday sometime.

Have a nice and lovely day and take good care of your family and tell them someone real and special is coming into your world soon.

The beauty of love is to look into your eyes, and see the love you feel for me, to see the way you feel and the way you care, that is why I really wanna be there for you and love you. Do not be little or disregard those who are different than you,

These are lovely poetic thought about what love is:

Love is like a river, never ending as it flows, but gets greater with time

Love is like swallowing hot chocolate before it has cooled off. It takes you by surprise at first, but keeps you warm for a long time.

Love is not about finding the right person, but creating a right relationship. It's not about how much love you have in the beginning but how much love you build till the end.

Love is a journey not a destination

Love is a precious gift that you receive, and you need to give it with caution

Love is happiness given back and forth

Love is the only game never postponed due to darkness

Love is too strong a word to say it too early, but it has too beautiful a meaning to say it too late.

Love is a noble act of self-giving, offering trust, faith, and loyalty. The more you love, the more you lose a part of yourself, yet you don't become less of who you are; you end up being complete with your loved ones.

Love is in your heart not to stay, but to be shared.

Love is like salted water; the more you drink the more your thirst increases

Love is when there are a million things you want to say to someone, but when they look you in the eyes and hold you in their arms nothing in life matters other than being with that person at that moment.

Love is like the air we breathe. It may not always be seen, but it is always felt, used and needed.

Love is not a feeling it's a sensation

Love is a box waiting to be opened by the right recipient

Love is when you find yourself spending every wish on her

Love is not to be purchased and affection has no price

Love is like a flower, give it some time, patience and lots of tender loving care; and watch it bloom into something wonderful before your eyes.

Love is knowing you are the bud from which his happiness blossoms.

Love is like the weather, sometimes it forces you to withdraw even when you don't want to stay inside. While other times it is the best of times and you keep yourself inside.

Love is like a rose, the special one grows in the winter

Love is what you make it and with whom you make it; it is what it is

Love is the passion that we feel inside of our hearts that we can't hide. We pretend to hide it, but it burns us more and more until the pain grows and grows and it never ends

If love is music in its purest form, then you are the notes on the page and the melody in my heart

Love is so powerful

Marriage is a fragile thread that binds us together, so handle it with care

Marriage is like a fine wine, as it ages it just gets better. Look at all the good times and leave behind the bad, for there are more wonders you will find in each, as time passes by.

about
The easiest part of marriage is falling in love and walking down the aisle. The most difficult part of marriage is 10 years later when the problems have ensued and issues have come about and you still find love. Marriage is not the beginning, marriage is about the process and still being able to love through all things.

loving me
For hearing my thoughts, understanding my dreams and being my best friend, for filling my life with joy and without end, I do love u so much hardships

Love is not perfect. Rather, a feeling full of problems and hardships. But it is through these problems and that we know that love can survive and endure anything, and shall endure forever.

Love is when two people join together and make each other better people for having the other in their life.

The grass is not greener on the other side, you just have to water your own.

happiness
What is Marriage? It is the mixture of communication, patience, love, sharing, praying and smiles to create and prosperity.

I sinerelly believe in you and ur love for me will never end till death do us part cause i will continue to love you care for you and make u happy...i do love you so so much and i will make it up to you meeting you in person but i dont
know when..i just imagine how its going to be but i dont know when..i am so desperate to meet you in person

fact that life goes on and on, and the fact that someone has cheated on me does not make all men to be equal. I had to come back to my senses all i am demaning now is your trust, honesty and care..... Well it was really nice to really know your actual feelings towards me and it was so nice share mine with you, we really know the priniciples of love and what surrounds its, its all about care,love feelings emotiones honesty,loyaty,building up ur own heart to a level to love someone, u are really great, u know what u seek and u know how to find it,its just as easy as ABC, if u know what u seek u will surellly find it and its all about hard work and faith,u work towards building fiath in you and how stronger you can hold on to your self for some while till u see the right person u looking for,your words make me see the future,ur words make me see whats in ur heart,ur life is full of joy,ur feeliongs make me happy i grow in you while u grow in me, i love the way we talk about things,its all about maturity in the human sense and body,we know we can handle things and we know how to handle our feelings and thats the best way to develope and build a solid future ahead of us,life is full of good things if u seek it with honesty

Hi LOVE,

How are u doing today, hope fine, i am still waiting to hear from u, just said i should know how u are feeling, take care of urself and remember that i care so much about u. Sleep tight.

These are lovely poetic thought about what love is:

Love is like a river, never ending as it flows, but gets greater with time

Love is like swallowing hot chocolate before it has cooled off. It takes you by surprise at first, but keeps you warm for a long time.

Love is not about finding the right person, but creating a right relationship. It's not about how much love you have in the beginning but how much love you build till the end.

Love is a journey not a destination

Love is a precious gift that you receive, and you need to give it with caution

Love is happiness given back and forth

Love is the only game never postponed due to darkness

Love is too strong a word to say it too early, but it has too beautiful a meaning to say it too late.

Love is a noble act of self-giving, offering trust, faith, and loyalty. The more you love, the more you lose a part of yourself, yet you don't become less of who you are; you end up being complete with your loved ones.

Love is in your heart not to stay, but to be shared.

Love is like salted water; the more you drink the more your thirst increases

Love is when there are a million things you want to say to someone, but when they look you in the eyes and hold you in their arms nothing in life matters other than being with that person at that moment.

Love is like the air we breathe. It may not always be seen, but it is always felt, used and needed.

Love is not a feeling it's a sensation

Love is a box waiting to be opened by the right recipient

Love is when you find yourself spending every wish on her

Love is not to be purchased and affection has no price

Love is like a flower, give it some time, patience and lots of tender loving care; and watch it bloom into something wonderful before your eyes.

Love is knowing you are the bud from which his happiness blossoms.

Love is like the weather, sometimes it forces you to withdraw even when you don't want to stay inside. While other times it is the best of times and you keep yourself inside.

Love is like a rose, the special one grows in the winter

Love is what you make it and with whom you make it; it is what it is

Love is the passion that we feel inside of our hearts that we can't hide. We pretend to hide it, but it burns us more and more until the pain grows and grows and it never ends

If love is music in its purest form, then you are the notes on the page and the melody in my heart

Love is so powerful

I prefer well-bred & well-educated, strong, courageous, purposeful, independent mens, who is fit & sense of gladness every day. Who think, that family, children & mutual understanding between close people - is one of the significant part of happiness in the life.

When it comes to love, I don't really think age matters as long as the love is there and its for real.

Is it true that someone older in age knows how to care and treat a lady?
I don't really know how to say this but its like there is something special about you right from when I met you.

I am very faithful and honest. Always reliable and always with a friendly and lovely advice to share. I am very easy to get along with and can go out of my way, if need be, to put a smile on my partners face all the time. I will go to any length to please him as well. i believe that god leads and directs our path

One thing I understand about something good is this, no good thing will come easy, if we are really and truly meant for each other, there must be challenges we have to face on our way to achieving our aim and we will surely overcome those challenges.

Actually I know that one day, the good lord will answer my prayers and bless me with a good , caring , loving and romantic man to be my partner, but I never knew it could be this real, I thank the good lord for bringing you my way. There are two important things to make one's life worth living. One is to have a true friend who will be there for you always to share your friendly advice and the second is to have a lover to share your love and affection with you and make you feel loved. Anyone of these is good as many people in the world today may have one of it and will remain happy, but I am happy I have both and that's you

I cant imagine any better thing than being with you at the moment and look into your eyes and watch the sun start to rise from there. i wish you could hold me and cuddle me in your arms right now

One thing about you men is, many of you pretend to be who you are not, just to get a lady up to you wherever you are and use her up to satisfy your sexual needs and later drop her. I hope you are different but how can I be sure that I will be safe while with you and will not be maltreated as just a sex slave. How can I trust you on this?

i hope you are for real and that this is not all about internet fantasy just to wipe your time or to satisfy a horny mood because i am for real and seriously looking for a lifetime soulmate. And as i am new to this internet relationship, i would not like to fall a victim.

As future husband and wife, I believe there should be a kind of physical intimacy between us cos I don't really believe much in this online thing as I am new to it unlike being together and really see how we feel about each other. So I will like us to make an arrangement to meet physically so as to make this relationship real and everlasting, what do you think?

I want you to realize one fact that in no occasion will I lie about my personality, what would I gain in such? I wish I could open my heart for you to see so that you can be sure I am for real. I don't know what else to say than to tell you that I will always be myself, honest, faithful, caring, loving and affectionate, I do hope you would believe me, lets give love a chance to win and I pray that we will never regret we do so.

One thing I understand about nature is that life itself is a risk, we don't have power over tomorrow, we can only try to make tomorrow a better day by trying our best and leaving the rest. I am ready to risk anything, even my very self, to secure my happiness. There are stages in ones life when one needs to take chances to make sure things are right. i believe a try will convince you.

Please don't leave me all to myself cos around you I have built my world and whatever you do to hurt me baby, it will definitely drive me crazy, please give me one chance to show and you will never regret meeting me..... Always care, Cynthia.
